

Communications Committee Member

Public Art Reston is seeking skilled volunteers to join its Communications Committee. The role of the Communications Committee is to support the overall comprehensive marketing and communications strategy for Public Art Reston. The committee partners with staff to oversee a consistent and active communication strategy to all stakeholders for the purposes of program messaging, fundraising, awareness, and branding. The Committee provides guidance on the implementation of the marketing and communications plans. All communications committee members should have a background in marketing, development, graphic design, media, communications, or public relations and should have excellent written and verbal communication skills. The Communications Committee meets approximately 6 times/year, usually on Wednesdays from 9:30 am to 11:30 am. Committee members can serve up to two three-year terms.

Consider sharing your time and unique skills with this community non-profit and help educate the public about Reston's public art and foster an interest in past and future public art projects in Reston!

All interested and qualified persons should send their resume and a letter of interest to info@publicartreston.org.
