

Public Art Committee Member

Public Art Reston is seeking skilled volunteers to join its Public Art Committee. The Public Art Committee provides oversight of both civic and private developer projects and ensures that knowledgeable artistic expertise is brought to bear on the review of public art projects, including artist selections, and artist concepts. The Public Art Committee is a committee of Public Art Reston that provides guidance regarding aesthetic decisions for specific projects and initiatives. The Committee is comprised of up to nine at-large members of the community. Candidates will have a background in the visual arts, public art, design, architecture, landscape architecture, urban design or structural engineering and will serve up to two three-year terms. The Public Art Committee meets six to seven times a year.

Consider sharing your time and unique skills with this community non-profit and contribute to the future of Reston's public art collection!

All interested and qualified persons age 18 or over should send their resume and a letter of interest to info@publicartreston.org.
