

Grant Writers

Public Art Reston is seeking individuals with experience in grant writing and interest in public art (art in public places) to consider being involved with the non-profit organization.

Public Art Reston's mission is to create a new generation of public artworks throughout Reston and offer educational programs. In order to do so, Public Art Reston relies on grants, donations by individuals and corporations, and support from community partners.

The volunteer grant writer will work closely with the Executive Director and participate in Development Committee meetings.

We are seeking volunteers with the following experience:

- Grant writing and research experience
- Knowledge of foundations, both regional and national, with grants in the arts and community engagement
- Ability to work independently and attend monthly committee meetings

Consider sharing your time and unique talents with this community public art non-profit to help support public artworks in Reston!

Interested and qualified volunteers should send their resume and letter of interest to info@publicartreston.org.

Preferred Skills:

- Grant Writing
- Fundraising
- Finance

Requirements:

- Must be at least 21
- Orientation or Training
- Commitment of at least 2 years

All interested persons age 21 or over should send their resume and a letter of interest to contact info@publicartreston.org.
